Fliers Break All Records; Remain in Air for More Than 51 Hours

ROOSEVELT FIELD, Mineola, N. Y., April 14—Two weary aviators, Bert Acosta and Clarence D. Chamberlain, who established a new record for endurance flying in a Bellanca monoplane—43 hours, 11 minutes and 25 seconds—came down, amid the cheers of a great crowd that had gathered at 12:42:05 o'clock this afternoon.

They smashed the previous world record of 45 hours, 11 minutes and 39 seconds, established by two French fliers, Drouhin and Landry, in August, 1925.

THEY surpassed the previous American record of 39 hours, four minutes and 34 seconds made by Lieut. Kelly and McCready at Wilbur Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, on April 17-18, 1923.

A straight line instead of circling within a radius of a dozen odd miles, they would have easily made the 3,000-mile flight to Paris and possibly would have been able to go as far as Constantinople, 4,500 miles from New York.

Acosta and Chamberlain attained their objective of 50 hours of continuous flying at 11:30:40 o'clock this morning, as they circled over Roosevelt Field in their monoplane after shattering the world's record for endurance flying.

Several other planes are getting ready to make the hop to Paris. They include the "America," to be navigated by Commander Richard E. Byrd, U. S. N., who flew over the North Pole, and "The American Legion," Lieut. Commander Noel Davis's plane, and there is every indication that there will be a race to see which plane makes the non-stop flight to Paris first.

Acosta and Chamberlain, on the present history-making test flight, have been flying over a triangular course covering 12 miles on each leg of the triangle.

When the plane started it had 385 gallons of gasoline and 21 gallons of oil. The plane weighs 1,850 pounds and was loaded to 4,500 pounds when it took off. As the flight progressed the total load was lightened as the 220-horsepower Wright whirling motor constantly ate up gasoline. The machine's best average for cruising is 110 miles an hour.

News from the Ganges
Moron Kultur. Harsh Words
Justice in Two Hours

BY ARTHUR BRISBANE

MANY "Reds" killed in Shanghai and other places in China. One of the Chinese leaders is expected to send Uncle Sam a rather sharp, unpleasant note concerning Uncle Sam's demands. That's part of the news from Asia.

OTHER news tells of 36 pilgrims—Hindus—killed in the spring rush to be first to bathe in the holy Ganges River.

IN addition to being the great Hindu bath, the "holy" Ganges River is also a burial place. Corpses are set afloat in it and it doesn't matter much what disease they died of. Plagues have spread all around the earth, starting on the edge of that "holy" river.

WE know that not the first to bathe in the Ganges River, but the one that never bathes there, is the one to be congratulated.

But the religious Hindus do not know it. Their ideas are thousands of years old, and that's why the British, with today's ideas, rule 300,000,000 of them so easily.

MR. MENCKEN, who writes, is annoyed that Boston should suppress books held by its appointed judges to be immoral or otherwise undesirable. He mentions the suppression of a book by Sinclair Lewis as proof that Boston possesses a "moron kultur."

KNAPP, DODD IN VERBAL BATTLE OVER TACTICS

Fracas Occurs When Rev. S. A. Blessing Tries To Have Cigaret Bill Removed

REPRESENTATIVES ROAR

Measure Finally Tabled After One Member Attacks Other Legislator

COLUMBUS, April 14—A verbal tilt between Rep. Martin Dodd, Toledo, Republican floor leader and Rep. C. E. Knapp, Medina, Republican, and an unsuccessful effort of Rev. S. A. Blessing, representative from Miami County, to have the Beck bill, prohibiting advertisements of cigarettes, taken away from the house codes committee featured the session of the Ohio House of Representatives here this forenoon.

After the session opened, Representative Blessing sought to submit, in writing, a motion that the house codes committee be relieved of the Beck bill which provided penalties for persons who advertised cigarettes on billboards, windows, or other outdoor display, or in any public conveyance, or who gave away cigarettes to any person under 21 years of age for advertising purposes.

Representative Dodd moved that the house proceed to the third reading of bills, preparatory to roll calls on the question of passing the measures on today's calendar.

Representative Knapp and other house members voiced objection to Dodd's motion, declaring that Blessing should be permitted to submit his motion. Knapp demanded that Dodd's motion, under house rules, be presented in writing.

After the house debated his motion, Dodd arose and registered vigorous disapproval of what he designated as "destructive tactics" on the part of "the gentleman from Medina." Frankly stating his dislike for Knapp "especially and generally," Dodd accused Knapp of having attempted, throughout the present session, to launch "a burlesque revolution" by striving "down the aisle flourishing a tin sword."

Knapp then arose, turned toward Dodd and, bowing low, said: "Thank you," while the house roared. Blessing's motion then was read.

WIFE SPEEDS ON

Mrs. Carroll Rushes Southward To Be at Bedside of Earl

New York, April 14—Mrs. Earl Carroll was speeding southward today to the bedside of her husband who was lying seriously ill in the Greenville, S. C., General Hospital.

Before her departure from New York, Mrs. Carroll said: "I will stick by Earl in his trouble. I will live near him in Atlanta. Since our marriage we have had an agreement that neither of us was to nag at the other over petty details arising in the life of every actress and every theatrical producer. We have kept that agreement and remained devoted pals."

Greenville, S. C., April 14—While continued improvement was noted in the condition of Earl Carroll throughout the morning, his condition still is serious, Dr. C. O. Bates, attending physician, said today.

At 11 o'clock the New York theatrical producer, who collapsed on his way to Atlanta, to serve a prison sentence for perjury, still was in a state of coma.

Carroll has been unconscious for nearly 30 hours. He collapsed on the train about 8 o'clock yesterday morning, and was removed to a hospital here at noon.

Dr. C. O. Bates, one of the attending physicians, declared that the patient was regaining muscular strength and was a little restless throughout the night.

Caused by Worry
"Carroll's collapse was brought about by over worry and nervousness following the famous 'bath tub' incident and his subsequent failure to escape serving a term in the Atlanta Federal prison, physicians believe."

BACK PLAN NOT TO PASS BILLS OVER DONAHEY

Majority Members Apparently Supporting Policy of Republican Leaders

WILL RECESS TONIGHT

Day's Calendar Call for Completion of Financial Program Enactment

COLUMBUS, April 14—Majority members of the Ohio Senate and House of Representatives today apparently were supporting the announced policy of Republican leaders of both legislative branches that no measures are to be passed over Gov. Vic Donahey's veto this session.

If this procedure is adhered to, legislative activities at the close of this session will be in marked contrast to that characterizing previous sessions when numerous measures were passed over Donahey's veto.

In accordance with a joint agreement reached by Republican members, the Senate and House are scheduled to recess tonight until next Wednesday when they will return for two or three days and then recess for 10 days, or two weeks. The work of this session then would be completed at a session lasting a day or two.

Today's Calendar
Today's legislative calendar called for completion of the work of enacting the major financial program by passing the Aigner and Kuebler bills in the house and the bill for American bills in the senate.

The Aigner and Kuebler measures, which have passed the senate, provide, respectively, for increasing the franchise tax levied on foreign corporations doing business in Ohio and for boosting the excise tax on certain utilities. It is proposed to raise the franchise tax from one-twelfth of one per cent to one-eighth of one per cent the first year and to one-tenth of one per cent during succeeding years. The excise tax increase is from 1.2 to 1.55 per cent.

Thinly-Garbed Flappers and Old Baldheads O K; Fat Men and Women Warned

Flaming Youth Gets Clean Bill from United States Public Health Service; Living Has Accelerated Since World War, Says Acting Surgeon General

WASHINGTON, April 14—Flaming youth got a clean bill of health from the United States public health service today.

So did thinly-garbed flappers and old men whose shining wigs grace the front rows of many musical revues. But fat women—and men, too—past the middle age, were warned to "go slow" and eat less, if they would partake much longer of the abundant pleasures of the jazz age of today.

Dr. C. C. Pierce, acting surgeon of the United States, summed up the jazz age today, casting into the discard the theories which forecast doom of the race because of the wildness of youth. He declared to be frightened by the assertion that every little kid shortens life by three minutes.

"Living has been accelerated since the World War and everybody is under a higher nervous tension," Pierce said.

BOTH IN PARIS

Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt At Scene of Rumored Litigation

Paris, April 14—Despite her positive announcement that she was going to Seattle, Spain, Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt II, who is understood to be involved in divorce litigation in the French courts, was still here today, a guest at the Hotel d'Orleans.

Asked if she would be present this afternoon at conciliation court—a preliminary procedure in divorce actions in France—she replied: "Certainly, I will not."

W. K. Vanderbilt II, who is said to have started the divorce proceedings, also is in Paris, having returned from the Riviera early in the week.

Washington, April 14—The apparent split between the right and left wings of the Cantonese National Government left the state department admittedly at sea today as to how to proceed in the adjustment of the Nanking incident.

Information has reached the department that the two wings of the Cantonese party may deliver separate replies to the American note demanding reparation and apology for American losses at Nanking.

Copies of the American protest note were delivered to the practically defunct Peking government, to Eugene Chen, the Cantonese foreign minister, and to Gen. Chiang Kai Shek, the southern military leader. Chen is now at Hankow, the temporary capital of the Southerners, and Gen. Chiang is at Nanking.

The difficulty from the state department's point of view, if both Chen and Chiang answer the note, is to decide which reply to recognize. To recognize Chen as the head of the Nationalist party, may invite reprisals from Gen. Chiang and vice versa. Officials admitted it a delicate task of "choosing the right horse."

J. R. McQUIGG TO SPEAK HERE ON MEMORIAL DAY

Will Deliver Main Address Following Annual Exercises in Marion Cemetery

OBSERVANCE PLANNED

Military, Patriotic Units and School Children Invited To Take Part

Gen. John R. McQuigg of Cleveland will be the principal speaker at the Memorial Day exercises in Marion. It was definitely announced today following a letter from Gen. McQuigg accepting the invitation to speak here.

Preliminary plans for the Memorial Day observance here were outlined at a meeting of the Memorial Day executive committee last night in Room No. 1 of the Georgian Hotel, 8 State-st. Col. George H. Christian was elected to preside as president of the day. Major James Wilson, McMurray was named vice president and Major George T. Geraud, grand marshal.

Clifton Lower was elected chairman of the committee; Harry G. Baker, secretary; and Lee Howison, treasurer. Representatives of Cooper Post No. 117, Grand Army of the Republic, Spanish War Veterans, and the American Legion were in attendance.

Every effort will be made this year, according to those in charge of arrangements, to make the Memorial Day parade and attendant exercises the largest in years.

The main exercises following the parade will be held in the natural amphitheater in Marion Cemetery north of the existing unit. A stage will be constructed and seats provided, similar to arrangements of last year.

As in former years school children will be invited to take part in the parade. It was voted to invite all local military, fraternal, and civic organizations and their auxiliaries to participate in the parade and Decoration Day exercises. They will also be invited to send representatives to the next committee meeting to be held at Community Home, at 7:30 p. m., Monday, May 2.

Temporary officers of the committee were Clifton Lower, chairman, and Lee Howison, secretary.

Visits Here

J. C. Patterson in charge of maintenance on the Erie Railroad, visiting offices in New York, was in Marion yesterday.

Work Hindered

Unfavorable weather hindered the laying of rail on the Big Four yesterday in this vicinity but the work may be completed late today or early Friday, it was thought. New 105-pound steel is replacing the old 90-pound material between Marion and Bellefontaine and workmen are now engaged at this end of the track.

Named Agent

W. W. Fell has been appointed as city freight agent of the Hocking Valley Railroad in Columbus succeeding the late J. P. Phelan, it was announced today.

Visiting in Cleveland

Benjamin Heiler, cashier of the local Erie freight house, who has been off duty for several months because of a broken arm, is visiting friends and relatives in Cleveland while convalescing.

Issues Statement

Whether the present position of railroads can be continued in 1927 is open to question, Edward E. Loomis, president of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, has stated in his latest annual report. Business conditions at the beginning of the year seem satisfactory and any serious reduction in traffic is not to be expected. Special factors affecting the railroads particularly however, serve materially to increase their cost of doing business.

Easter May Be Chilly

It is to be expected that during the Easter season the days may be rainy and the nights damp and chilly. Prepare against Spring colds by keeping the house warm, and to keep it warm you must have coal in the bin. For the coal you may stand in need of let us have your order now so that we can put it in before all your present supply is gone.

STUDENTS SAVE NEARLY $30,000 IN SINGLE YEAR

Heavy Withdrawals in Last Few Weeks Cuts Down Total of Deposits

Students in the Marion public schools saved nearly $30,000 during the last year, through the system of school savings installed just a year ago. The net deposits in the school savings bank would have totaled more than $30,000 had it not been for heavy withdrawals by the students during the last two weeks. Withdrawals totaled more than $1,000 since March 22, and cut down the net deposits.

With the deposit made Wednesday the net saving of the school children during the year amount to $29,585.73. Last week the schools made a large deposit, placing $1,055.21 in the bank. This week the amount fell off to $900.58. Of this last amount, the High School put in $173.86 and the grade schools $726.72.

The first deposit was made in the school savings system on April 8, 1926. Throughout the entire year deposits have been made by the children. During the summer vacation the children kept up the savings system, and instead of depositing at the school they took their money direct to the banks. During the school year the students bank with their teachers, who credit them in their pass books and turn the money over to the principal, who sends it to the bank.

The first deposit made was $907.72. The average deposit has been around $900 a week. During the summer the lowest amount banked in a week was $606.51, and the highest deposit made was the week of Jan. 4, 1927, when the students put in $1,406.45.

BIDS ON POWER ROLLER TO BE OPENED APRIL 25

Proposals for Sale of City Dump Property To Be Viewed May 17

Director O. A. Benedict announced today that bids will be opened April 25, on the gasoline power roller which is to be purchased for use in the city's street repair and maintenance department and that proposals for sale of the city dump ground, located at the southwest corner of Patterson and Main streets, will be opened May 17.

of the dump ground were authorized by council at its meeting Monday night. It is estimated that the road roller will cost in the neighborhood of $3,000. It will be used chiefly for work on the city's 85 miles of dirt streets, which require a large amount of repair and maintenance service throughout the year. In the past the city has rented rollers from local contracting firms, paying on an average of $3.50 an hour. Service Director Benedict informed council that by having its own roller available at all times the city will be able not only to reduce expenses but keep the dirt streets in much better condition than in the past.

The city dump ground covers about an acre and can easily be placed in condition to be platted into several lots for residence purposes, city officials state. When purchased by the city about 20 years ago it was part of an abandoned quarry and removal of stone had left a deep excavation over practically the entire acre. This excavation has been completely filled by rubbish hauled there during the 20 years of use as a city dump.

SEVEN JUSTICES WILL DECIDE SINCLAIR CASE

Stone and Van Devanter Decline To Participate; Argument Before Court Today

Washington, April 14—The famous Teapot Dome oil lease case will be decided by seven justices of the supreme court.

Justice Harlan F. Stone, former attorney general, declined to participate because of his connection with the case in his former office, and Justice Willis Van Devanter absented himself from oral arguments because his brother-in-law, John W. Lacey, appeared as a lawyer for the defense.

Justice George H. Sutherland, who is ill, will participate although he was unable to listen to arguments.

Argument continued before the high court today, with Martin W. Littleton leading the Sinclair legal battery, against Owen J. Roberts and Alton Pomeroy for the government.

Justices piled counsel with questions from the bench as the argument proceeded, indicating their keen interest in the case.

The government seeks to cancel the lease. Fall gave Sinclair on the ground that, like the Doherty lease to Elk Hills, it was "grounded in fraud." The government lost in the Wyoming federal court, but won in the eighth circuit court.

An early decision in the case is hardly expected, as summer recess is not far off and there is a belief that the decision will be delayed in any event until after the trial of Sinclair and Fall on the criminal charge of conspiracy. That trial has been set for April 25, but likely will be postponed until autumn because of missing witnesses.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Mrs. O. J. McDonald, 336 Girard-av., underwent an abdominal operation at City Hospital this morning.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT, IS FIERY, ITCHY OR ROUGH, USE SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ-destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur at any drug store.—Ad.

than yesterday," Pierce said. "Their clothing is sensible. Nothing helped women like the abandonment of the old corset and tight clothing. Sufficient clothing to protect the body from the weather is enough."

Scenes Overeating

Pierce scored overeating, declaring that slender people have a better chance of long and enjoyable life than the fat ones. Fat women past 50 should be disappointed according to Pierce. Too much food, he said, increases fat and puts a big burden on the heart, liver and kidneys. Anti-fat medicines were condemned and light diet and exercise to cut off the surplus flesh recommended instead.

The much discussed "high blood pressure" among men is not increasing in Pierce's opinion. Three meals a day of heavy meat and intoxicating liquors of yesterday caused vastly more high blood pressure than all the chorus girls and short skirts of today, according to the surgeon general.

EXPECT TO FORM NEW SHOVEL CONCERN TODAY

Complete Details of Organization To Be Given Out Friday, Report

Organization of the new Marion Shovel Co., which was formally authorized by issuance of certificate of incorporation at the secretary of state's office in Columbus, yesterday, was expected to take place at the company's offices here today.

Arrangements for holding the organization meeting and electing a complete corps of directors and officers were being made this morning, plans being discussed in telephone communications between W. A. Harriman & Co., the New York City corporation which recently purchased the local industry, and its attorneys here.

Complete details of the organization will probably be given out for publication Friday, it was stated.

In the meantime plans for sale of the $2,700,000 stock and bond issues for refinancing of the business are proceeding satisfactorily, officials of the company stated. The $3,000,000 first mortgage bond issue, placed on the market yesterday in Chicago and other large cities, is reported to be selling rapidly with prospects of the entire offering being disposed of in the near future.

The bonds are to be offered to Ohio investors within a few days, according to present plans. The sale has been delayed in this state due to certain requirements of the state securities department.

Fire Insurance

is something you take for granted—a protection every property owner should have.

But don't take too much for granted. Don't think that you can take out fire insurance and forget it except when premiums are due. You must ask yourself every year if your protection is still adequate, if changing property values, improvements and additions in your property, new equipment, etc., have not affected the efficiency of existing policies.

We will gladly help you take inventory of your risks.

CONSERVATIVE FORCES SEEM IN CONTROL

Shanghai, April 14—Although there have been many killed and wounded during the past three days in the Nationalist raids against the extremists, the conservative forces today appeared to be in control, but the situation was still menacing.

It is impossible accurately to estimate the tolls of the three days intermittent fighting between the two factions of the Nationalist party, but conservative forces believe there has been at least 250 killed and probably twice that number wounded. Many of the deaths occurred when mobs attempted to storm the headquarters of the Nationalist army to regain the arms which had been taken from the irregulars.

In view of the military reverses suffered by the Nationalists in the north there are many who anticipate an agreement between Chiang and the northern leaders.

AMERICAN SAILORS RETURN GUN FIRE

Peking, April 14—Northern troops on the bank of the Yangtze River fired upon the United States gunboat No. 1, the American sailors returning the fire with machine guns, according to information received here today. The No. 1 is now anchored about a mile above Nanking.

The Nationalist reply to the five powers' notes protesting against the anti-foreign outrages at Nanking, said to be presented Friday, said to have been received here today.

YOUTHS DISCOVERERS OF CACHE CONTAINING $3100

Officials Believe Robbery of Payne Bank Will Be Cleared Up

Van Wert, April 14—With the finding of $3,100 in bills by two boys near a water tank at Ohio City, authorities today believed that the robbery of the Farmers and Citizens' Bank at Payne, Paulding County, would be promptly cleared up.

The boys found the money hidden near a railroad water tank, and turned it over to authorities, according to information here.

Two men, held in jail here as suspects in connection with the holdup of the bank, which was robbed by three bandits, were today charged with driving a stolen automobile. One of the suspects, who gave his name as Clyde F. Acton, Bluffton, Ind., has been partially identified as a resident of Payne. The other man gave his name as George Andreonette, Johnston, Penn.

Paulding County authorities were expected here today to attempt definitely to establish the real identity of the two prisoners.

Three pistols were found in the cache with the money.

Windsor, Ont., April 14—Five bandits who handcuffed and robbed Joseph Guinnet, Windsor realtor, and Henry Cornish, Sandwich East chief of police, were captured today after being ambushed for seven hours during which more than 400 shots were fired by a posse of 100 officers and civilians.

Those under arrest are: William Findlay, 30; Wilfred Johnston, 27; George King, 27; George Thompson, 25, and Charles Murphy, 28.

All but Murphy were captured as they emerged from the ambush in an attempt to escape the withering fire of the surrounding posse. Murphy was arrested in a restaurant.

Cornish and Guinnet had arrested a suspicious character on Cornish's farm. Guinnet was in Marion Cemetery.

Even Rice Hurt Stomach, Says Girl

Afterluka gives the system a REAL cleansing and brings out old poisons which may have caused trouble for a long time. Unlike most medicines, it acts upon BOTH upper and lower bowels. Just one spoonful relieves GAS and takes away that full, bloated feeling so that you can eat better and sleep better. No matter what you have tried for your stomach and bowels, Afterluka will surprise you. At drug stores, Henny & Cooper's and other druggists.—Advt.

THREE FIREMEN HURT IN $2,000,000 BLAZE

Fire Sweeps Downtown Business District of Morgantown, W. Va.

Morgantown, W. Va., April 14—Three firemen were injured, several hundred persons were driven from their homes and damage estimated at more than $2,000,000 was done by a fire which swept the downtown business district here today.

The fire originated from an undetermined cause in the basement of Aaron Garlow department store, in High-st. It rapidly swept this structure, the Shelby Shoe Store, then jumped to the four-story Morgantown Hardware Co. Building, collapsing walls of this structure demolished two smaller buildings, and the flames spread to the Strand Theater building, a six-story brick.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

The Young Mother.

The ills of infants and children should be so well known to the youngest of mothers that a reminder or a repetition of the symptoms of illness seems unnecessary, yet there are some mothers who overlook a feverish condition, a little colic, or a disposition to be irritable. If not corrected they may lead to serious sickness. And to correct them, to bring Baby back to its happy self, is so easy by the use of Castoria—a medicine prepared just for infants and children. It will regulate the bowels (not force them), aid digestion and so bring quiet and rest.

Fletcher's Castoria has been doing this for over 30 years, regulating the stomach and bowels of infants and children. It has replaced the nauseating Castor Oil, so-called Soothing Syrup, poisonous Paregoric and other vicious concoctions in the homes of true and honest mothers—mothers who love their children.

Those mothers will give their babies foods and medicines especially prepared for infants and children.

To avoid imitations, always look for the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher. Proven directions on each package. Physicians everywhere recommend it.

WEATHERMAN SCHEDULES MORE APRIL SHOWERS

Rain Billed To Hit Central Ohio, Mercury Drops to Freezing

More April showers are scheduled by the weatherman for this section. While Spring is with us far as the showers and the date are concerned, the temperature has not yet reached a point where anyone realizes "that the spring has come."

The mercury went down to freezing last night, and did not go above 50 during the warmest period Wednesday. The range will not be any greater during the next 24 hours the weather forecasters said today.

The showers are scheduled to hit the southern portion of the state today, and more north, coming into central Ohio Friday.

A year ago the temperature was more nearly in keeping with the season, registering 67 for high and 49 for low.

The political weakness of either Smith or McAdoo is the political strength of the other.

The trouble with debates, as once more demonstrated by the Borah-Butler meeting, is that they never settle anything.

"President Recovers Twenty-Three Now-boys, One a Girl," reads a headline in a New York paper, which shows in striking form the marked flexibility of the English language.

And now we are told that the "most beautiful girl in France" is to be added to the long list of beauties who wear their hair long. Can it be that the bob is slipping?

Mr. Dawes says he will not be a candidate for any office in 1928. Charlie may be figuring that history will repeat itself and he be drafted again.

It may be true that the revolt in Nicaragua is over, as the envoy of President Diaz in Washington claims, but this is utterly at variance with the general view held up here that the revolt down there is perpetual.

How easy it is to be mistaken! Here's our good governor fighting the slot machine lobby, and all the time we have been assuming from some of the newspaper comment that he was behind it.

In any event, former Governor Allen may rely upon the support of the victims of little Dan Cupid on the voyage in his contention that the docting college was a great success. They probably haven't had time to start quarreling, as yet.

Why any surprise over the announcement that Ganna Walska is planning to open a beauty parlor in Paris? One doesn't necessarily have to possess an operatic voice to run a beauty parlor.

The income of the two Fords—Henry and Edsel—last year is said to have been $75,000,000. Think of two men dividing a sum like that for the decimating of us true aristocrats of the land! If there's money enough in it, there's no limit to man's inhumanity to man.

The Jacksonville Times-Union points out that the "Chinese war has been the means of introducing coolie coats" to the women folk. As a rule, war introduces coolie coats to the men.

Let's see. Mayor Thompson took over the reins of government April 11. Thus we can not reasonably expect him to carry out his promise to chase all the bandits, gunmen, thugs, bootleggers and other criminals out of the city within ninety days before July 10.

The French and Italian governments having gotten together on the project, a line thirty-two miles long from Aosta to St. Didier, piercing Mt. Blanc with a tunnel eight miles long, is to be constructed at an estimated cost of $1,780,800. If this cost figure is correct, it gives us an illustration of the little cost of labor and materials over in Europe compared to the cost over here.

Centenary of the Match.

One day last week—last Thursday to be exact—the centenary of the match was observed in England, and tribute was paid by the British press to its inventor, John Walker, a chemist of Stockton-on-Tees.

Walker kept a rather comprehensive record of his match business, and this record has been preserved. It shows that his first sale—a box of friction matches—was made to one, John Hixon. The total sales for the next two years aggregated only a few boxes over 250. Then the demand quickened, and soon it reached such proportions as to afford him a steady income and his chemist shop became a mere side line to his match business.

The match had been attempted before Walker's time, but a successful one had never been produced. Walker's was the first which proved practical, and it was decidedly crude and very crudely boxed. Each box contained fifty matches, and a piece of sandpaper was supplied with each box upon which to scratch the matches. It was a year or two after he produced his first matches that Chemist Walker thought of pasting the sandpaper to the box for convenience in carrying as well as in use.

Just at present this country seems to be suffering one of its periodic attacks of pocket lighters. Just about everybody has one of the little contrivances which are offered the smoker as a substitute for matches. We had a similar epidemic seven or eight years ago and still another fourteen to fifteen years in the past. And they are mighty clever little articles so long as one remembers to keep them supplied with flints and whatever essence may be used therein. But sooner or later, we lay them aside and return to the match.

Without a doubt, the match is responsible for a heavy toll of life and property loss—usually the result of carelessness, but sometimes of viciousness. But at the same time it has proved one of the greatest conveniences and blessings known to mankind during the past century. Even today, with all our electrical equipment and our patent lighters, we could hardly get along without matches.

World's Gunnery Record Broken.

Announcement comes from Guantanamo—a name which will recall a stirring incident of the Spanish-American war—revealing the fact that, in the long-range battle practice off the coast of Cuba, last month, all previous world's records for precision were surpassed by five United States battleships, firing over a 30,000-yard range, which is about seventeen miles. The targets were out of sight, of course, and the gunning was directed by aircraft.

Captain William Cluverius, commanding the West Virginia, is quoted as saying: "It was the finest material performance yet recorded in guns, planes and machinery. All officers are convinced this firing off Cuba will exercise a profound effect on the naval development of all nations," while Captain Thomas Craven, commanding the Maryland, expressed the view that the magnificent shooting again places world leadership responsibility on the United States.

It was known that much was expected from the newly adopted method of control, which is being zealously guarded by our navy, and it has long been recognized that our gunners possess unexcelled proficiency in marksmanship, due in very large part to the policy inaugurated by President Roosevelt, under which we probably expend as great a sum in actual battle target practice as the navies of all the powers combined. Thus there is little surprise that the world's big gun target records, held by our navy, have been broken. But, frankly, we can not understand Captain Craven's reference to world leadership responsibility as the result of our navy's matchless gunnery, nor can we see why it offers ground for the conclusion, carried in the Guantanamo announcement, that "eighteen and twenty-inch guns and continuing of big-ship building after the end of the naval treaty is assured by this gunnery development, which places battleships far away from enemy targets."

Americans naturally will be proud of the proficiency shown by our gunners just as we are proud of American proficiency in any desirable line. We are glad our naval gunners possess such proficiency, for it is unthinkable that we maintain a navy at enormous expense only to have it lacking in proficiency. But it is utterly out of the question that big-caliber rifles will ever be used against either submarines or aircraft. The manner in which they are mounted make such use practically impossible. Hence it is that such gunnery will hardly prove a defense against undersea or air attacks, the two avenues of attack which are held by many to have made battleships obsolete. Accepting the fact that our navy's gunnery is superior to that of all other navies, it is difficult to see how such supremacy will continue the battleship as the backbone of our sea defense until greater resistance is possessed by it against under-water and air attacks.

In other words, so far as we can see, the battleship problem is just where it was before we surpassed our old world's record with the new one.

Sonator Caraway, of Arkansas, says southern Democrats oppose the presidential candidacy of Governor Smith, of New York, by at least fifty to one. If the senator is within a mile of the true situation in the South, Alfred might just as well wake up and realize that it has all been a dream.

One phase of the coming international yacht races which is liable to attract more than ordinary interest in them is that they probably will have to be sailed entirely outside the twelve-mile limit.

A citizen of Berlin is making a comfortable living by peddling dog meat—not the meat of dogs, but meat for dogs. If the taking-on of canine pets is as pronounced generally as it is out in the aristocratic section in which we have our place of abode, there should be a mighty lucrative business opening right here in Marion.

As the average citizen sees it, the really disturbing phase of a coal strike is the opportunity it gives the operators to advance prices, an opportunity which we can not recall that they have ever overlooked.

A cable from Oxford says that barbed wire entanglements have been thrown about St. Hilda's College for Women over there in an effort to keep out male serenaders. If the serenading over there is anything like it used to be over here before Mr. Volstead put the skids under it, there can be no question of the wisdom of the college authorities in taking this humane precaution.

In the light of the report sent out from there, that two big whales are sporting about just off the coast, we assume that Cape May is attempting to stage a come-back as a summer resort. But what we can't understand is why she ever substituted these animals for the old, reliable sea serpent so long used for advertising purposes.

Poems That Live.

TO ALTHEA FROM PRISON.

When Love, with confused wings,
Hovers within my gates,
And my divine Althea brings
To whisper at the gates.
When I lie tangled in her hair
And fettered to her eye,
The birds that wait in the air
Know no such liberty.
When flowing cups run swiftly round
With no allaying Thames,
Our careless heads with roses bound,
Our hearts with loyal flames;
When thirsty grief in wine we steep,
When health and draughts go free—
Fishes that tattle in the deep
Know no such liberty.
When, like committed linets, I
With thriller throat shall sing
The sweetness, mercy, majesty
And glories of my King;
When I shall voice aloud how good
He is, how great should be,
Enlarged wings, that curl the flood
Know no such liberty.
Stone walls do not a prison make,
Nor iron bars a cage;
Minds innocent and quiet take
That for an hermitage;
If I have freedom in my love
And in my soul am free,
Angels alone, that soar above,
Know no such liberty.

—Richard Lovelace.

THE CAT THAT ALWAYS COMES BACK.

Halt Cancer Early.

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.

One of my colleagues in the senate presented a bill to provide a reward of $5,000,000 to the first person demonstrating a cure for cancer. It would be worth $5,000,000 if we could find a cure. Some day we are sure to have it, but I fear it will not come as a result of such legislation. Two cash prizes have been offered by private individuals, and as a result more than a thousand applications have been made for the rewards. Unfortunately, these applications come from persons who do not understand the nature of cancer. They relate largely to skin cancer and have no bearing upon the deadly internal forms of the disease.

External or skin cancer is dealt with pretty satisfactorily, but internal cancer continues to be the dreaded foe of the physician. More than a thousand lives were sacrificed to cancer in the United States last year. In a period of twenty-five years it has increased its percentage as a cause of death by fifty per cent.

I am not telling you these things to frighten you. But it is well for you to be forewarned so that you won't neglect to give early attention to every suspicious swelling or unusual pain. In common with most of the serious ailments, cancer can be dealt with successfully if it is taken in time. To delay attention is to permit the neighboring glands and tissues to be invaded and to become involved in the cancerous mass. This complicates the situation and makes relief more difficult.

Instinctively there is a fear of going to the doctor lest he may confirm the suspicion that cancer is present. How foolish this is!

You don't need to die if you have cancer. But you will die if you put off your visit to the doctor. Place yourself under medical care at once, so that your physician can have a fair chance to relieve you.

We can not temporize with cancer any more than we can with a fire. If your house is in flames you do not wait to see if they won't die out of their own accord. You yell for help at once and call out the fire department.

To exactly the same spirit and for the same reason you should call on your doctor if you have the slightest suspicion that you have cancer. Ninety-nine times out of a hundred you will be laughed at for your fears, but if unhappily, cancer is really present there is every hope of recovery in the earliest stages.

Today's Worst Story.

BY WILL ROGERS

Dentists have all my sympathy. They got a job that would try anybody's nerves, even when they can bite a girl to present the bills. But some dentists try to make the job a bit easier by talking to the poor customer while they drill his teeth out of his head. They try to talk the poor guy into believing it don't hurt, and sometimes they're hard put to it to think up something to say. So this here dentist in this story had been rambling around to find some subject that his customer was interested in, and the customer hadn't been saying a word. That might have been because the customer had a lot of machinery in his mouth, but the dentist never thought of that. Finally, the dentist thinks he'd better try a leading question, and he says:

"Let's see, now, when was it that the Titanic went down?"

"I don't know the exact date," says the customer, "but it was only a short time before you put that rubber dam in my mouth."—Copyright, 1927.

Some Questions of Interest Asked and Answered.

Q. How high can the temperature be and still have frost form? F. G. G.

A. When frost forms the temperature is 32 degrees F. or lower at the spot where the frost occurs. The temperature a few feet above the surface of the earth, on still clear mornings, often is several degrees higher than it is at the surface. Hence, frost may occur on the grass and in low places when the temperature on one's porch, for instance, is distinctly above the freezing point.

Q. Where was Ranelagh? R. E.

A. This was a fashionable London pleasure resort of the eighteenth century. The colonnade was built on the model of the Parthenon. It stood in a beautiful garden and accommodated 6,000 persons. The grounds are now occupied by the Chelsea hospital.

Q. Of what is the driving equipment of a gasoline-electric street car constituted? B. H. D.

A. Of a gasoline engine, a dynamo and motors. The gasoline engine, of say a capacity of 200 horse power, actuates the dynamo through direct connection with latter. The electric power generated by the dynamo is transmitted to the motors, the latter being in connection with the car-axles.

Q. Is there a difference in the degrees of murder in Great Britain? F. N.

A. There is not in Great Britain the difference in the degree of criminality for murder known as first and second degree as in the United States. All murder is a capital offense

The Way of the World.

BY GROVE PATTERSON.

This column records from time to time the predictions of science. It is pleasant to record some of its demonstrations. Sitting in a New York laboratory the other day, a man talked to Herbert Hoover in Washington over the telephone, and at the same time saw Mr. Hoover's picture on a screen. The dream of television is an actuality.

"You are looking well," said the man in New York.

"Thank you," said Mr. Hoover, "I am feeling fine."

Now that we've got it, what are we going to do with it all?

The Lawrence college conservatory of music, Appleton, Wisconsin, does well when it gives an honorary degree to Madame Schumann-Heink. A certain greatness may come from high and unusual talent. A truer greatness comes from the capacity for real friendship. Madame Schumann-Heink has proved herself a wondrous friend to thousands in despair.

Stockholders of the Eastman Kodak company approve a wage dividend of $1,000,000. Fancy that news coming out of Russia—or out of any other country in Europe for that matter. The soapbox gets a pretty lean crowd in America these days.

Speaking of good news, F. O. Wetmore, chairman of the board of the First National bank, of Chicago, is just back from a round-the-world tour. He knows business and business conditions when he sees them. That's his specialty. Wetmore says the United States is the only country whose people are happy and where business is in a prosperous condition.

Dinner Stories.

"Well, Mrs. Johnson," a colored physician announced, after taking her husband's temperature, "Ab has knocked de fever outen him."

"Sho' nuff?" was the excited reply. "Am he gwine git well, den?"

"No'm," answered the doctor. "Deys no hope fo' him, but you has de satisfaction ob knowin' that he died cured."

"Isn't Bessie a sweet, old-fashioned girl?" "Yes, indeed! She won't have anything to do with these new dances."

"No, indeed! She told me, 'the Charleston was good enough for my mother, so I guess it's good enough for me.'"

A man was trying to qualify for the job of conductor on a street car.

"Now," said the examiner, "Imagine you are in charge of a car going up a steep incline. Suddenly the driver signals to you that he has lost control and you find the car going backward down the incline. You are gaining speed every second. Tell me, what is the very first thing you would do?"

The candidate thought for a moment, then his face brightened as he replied:

"Why, sir, of course I'd chance the destination boards first of all."

Today's Events.

Thursday, April 14, 1927.

Anniversary of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln in 1865.

Centenary of the birth of Hamilton Andrews Hill, eminent Boston merchant and publicist. Spring is here! Today the big circus opened its season in Madison Square garden, New York City.

Princess Beatrice, youngest daughter of the late Queen Victoria of Great Britain and mother of the queen of Spain, is seventy years old today.

Williamsburgh, Long Island, one of the flourishing adjuncts of the nation's metropolis, today observed the centennial of its incorporation as a village.

Today being Maundy Thursday there took place in Westminster Abbey the quaint annual ceremony known as the distribution of the King's "Maundy Money." The number of recipients is calculated on the age of the king, and therefore sixty-two men and sixty-two women received the gift this year.

Scientific and Useful.

Temperatures which are said to be melt electric batteries have been encountered in the work of drilling a well in Orange county, California, which is said to be the deepest hole in the world.

A ranch for the rearing of muskrat, covering 7,000 acres of swamp-land, lakes and woods, is being constructed in the interior of British Columbia. The ranch is expected eventually to produce 50,000 pelts a year.

By heating tools to whiteness and then plunging them rapidly into sealing wax until they will no longer pierce the latter, it is claimed that a hard lasting edge is put on them. In the process, the steel becomes almost as hard as a diamond.

A war gas has turned out to be of great use to the silk industry. When the cocoons are killed, it is found that gassing them is much better than the old methods of baking or steaming. The cocoon is said to keep much longer, and therefore can be handled as non-perishable merchandise in transportation and storage.

The laboratory of the British Research association is reported to have devised an improved spinning frame that will draw, or spin, wool twice in the same direction, something that experts have always considered to be impossible. The new machine, by cutting out two intermediate processes, will mean an enormous saving in the textile industry.

New York Day by Day.

BY O. O. MINTYRE.

New York, April 14—New York is more snooty than London. Many have said that gazing through the Jorgnette or looking at the Brahmins adds to the feeling of snootiness. They immediately become the center of much patronizing.

It is noticed that the haughtiest customer an exclusive shop often receives the most consideration and as a result there is a large number of Manhattan that will have no conversation with life save through the butler. They say, "sinner's A's and don the high hat."

Snootiness is not confined to aristocrats or to snooty silk-stocked connoisseurs; it breeches with leather or was killed in law law. Sudden wealth spawns the majority of snobs.

Frequently one finds families who have lived for years in tenement drudgery, who suffer disaster that with wealth they can not state the rigors of winter and flee to Florida at first touch of snow. And a few years later they splatter the photographs, posed on beach sand.

"Paper Collar Job" once observed that a silk hat and British drawl he could find Fifth Avenue in plenty as long as he is in Manhattan responds to snootiness, where Main street would give it an equine howl. Cafes with the most superior sort of aloofness receive the greatest patronage. The haughtiest actress in town is the most courted. And a former shipping clerk who acquires manners of a grandee invariably cops chafes in supper clubs.

Snootiness is not a general New York idea. It is not found among people who read count, but it has often catapulted a mediocre into the Horse Shoe circle.

A young lady was asked to chaperone a bachelor apartment dinner the other evening. While waiting for the guests she visited a curio room and in a playful moment snatched a pair of handcuffs on her wrists. She then asked him what she had done. He replied a called a locksmith, and it was daylight before the handcuffs had been filed off. He had the key.

Five years ago a handcuffed prisoner on a Sing Sing slipped from his guard in a Grand Central station. All his old habits were fine combed and it was not until ten days later he was found equalling along the library with both hands bandaged and in a heavy bleeding. The bracelets had not been removed. He was waiting for the hue and cry to die before having them expertly removed. In meantime he was capitalizing his calamity picking up extra change as a beggar.

New York today for its size has fewer street beggars than any city. So many medics posed as living in hotel grandeur made a pub usually generous, cold and sterile. Most professional beggars in the metropolis have turned to trickier pursuits. The gold gag of appealing in shabby clothes to display a spurious union card receives only appraising glances. New Yorkers have been trained to satisfy request for money to buy food by inviting the supplicant to a restaurant and standing by until the food is eaten. Thus such beggars are assured of all they can eat but nothing else. The haven for mendicants on Bleeker street known as "Beggars' Roost" has been desert for more than a year.

The beggar has found that with good cloth he can edge into another stratum of society spin a sudden hard luck yarn, borrow here and there and pass on to another set of victims. Copyright, 1927.

BARRON COLLIER.

Barron Collier was born at Memphis, Tennessee, March 23, 1873. He began his career in the advertising brokerage business. Memphis in 1890 and has since become president of a number of advertising, railway, hotel, telephone and navigation companies. He is a director of several banking institutions and an officer of many other corporations. Since 1922 Collier has been special deputy police commissioner in charge of public safety New York City. Discussing business conditions in the country, he says:

"General business conditions in the United States are fair to good and the outlook is encouraging."

"A vast change is taking place in wholesale and retail methods. Hand-to-mouth buying common among retailers, and while this was severe blow to manufacturers at first, they are becoming accustomed to it and rearranging their distribution plans accordingly."

"Under way in most lines save automobiles, shoes and textiles."

"Small shopkeepers are feeling keenly the competition of chain stores and big department stores. Many are going out of business. Most of them are the remains of over-expansion during the war. Chain stores and mail-order houses have shown increases since the first of the year."

"Entirely too many 'cut price sales' are being on. Emphasis has been placed too great on price during the last two years and as a result, merchants say, the public now sits and waits for reductions. High-grade merchants are endeavoring to preach quality and price less because business can not be built constructively on prices alone."

"Installment buying still is widespread and still has dangerous possibilities."

"Employment in most leading lines except automobiles, shoes and textiles, is steady."

TEXANS IN DREAD FEAR OF ANOTHER TORNADO

Storm Conditions Prevail Over Entire Panhandle District;
Damage Is Reported

San Antonio, Tex., April 14—
Fear of the injured brought here by trains from Rock Springs last night succumbed today to the fearful winds they received in the tornado which wrecked that little town Tuesday night. Many more are in a critical condition, and at least five more of the seriously injured were not expected to survive the day.

San Antonio, Tex., April 14—Citizens of the Texas Panhandle were on edge today, in dread of a second tornado.

The usual result of the first ride—

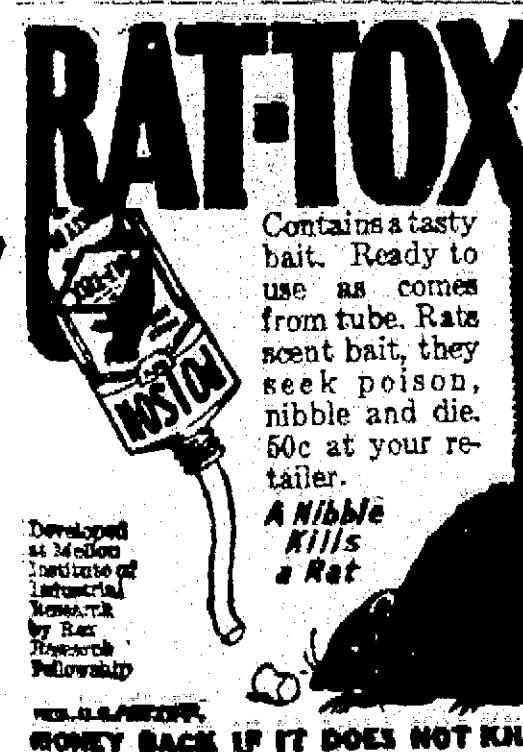

"MUSCLES ALL TIED UP IN HARD KNOTS"

Limbers up quickly
after hard ride

"After several years' absence from the saddle, I took a hard horseback ride, and the next day my muscles were all tied up in hard knots. I applied Sloan's Liniment. Right away the tenseness in the muscles began to relax and in an hour or so, they felt as limber as ever."

The makers of this wonderful liniment have received many thousands of letters like this telling of the amazing relief that Sloan's gives to every kind of muscular pain.

Sloan's gives real and lasting help because it doesn't just deaden the pain.
It gets at the cause. Right to the place that hurts it brings a healing stream of fresh, new blood. And stiff muscles quickly relax, and pain stops as the healing stream carries off the "fatigue poisons." Get a bottle today. All druggists—35 cents.

that a death dealing tornado, such as the one that wiped out the little village of Rock Springs, 120 miles south of here, Tuesday night, might strike their own town.

Storm conditions prevailed today over the entire district, centering in the extreme southeastern part of the state.
A series of disturbances of the dreaded twister type, were reported from many places. No heavy loss of life occurred, but property damage was heavy, the reports state.

Rock Springs virtually was wiped out the map Tuesday night when a tornado struck without warning, killing 60 persons and injuring 150. The entire population of 800 was made homeless. Not a building was left standing.

Heron, Palestine, Belton, Temple and Fort Worth were some of the towns reporting storms of extreme proportions late yesterday. One child was killed at Fort Worth and considerable property damage was done.

Reports today indicated the fresh storms would blow themselves out along the Gulf of Mexico, but there remained the possibility that they would shift northeastward and sweep across Louisiana, Mississippi and states east.
In the meantime, Panhandle citizens will keep within reach of their storm cellars.

ROCK SPRINGS RESUMES TASK OF BURYING DEAD

Rock Springs, Tex., April 14—Rock Springs today resumed the melancholy task of burying its dead, victims of Tuesday's tornado.

Some estimates place the death list at close to 90 when a final check-up is completed, although only 44 bodies have been identified. A number of persons are unaccounted for and some of the injured are not expected to live.

Burial preparations were of the crudest sort, dynamite being used to blast holes in the little cemetery where in the bodies were laid.

Night brought a cessation to the funerals, which started late yesterday, and the tired residents, worn out from their experiences and the heavy tasks they had performed through the preceding night and day, stood in little groups on what was left of Main-st.

Tears rolled down their cheeks as they viewed the scene of desolation.

The dead were buried as they were found, there being no time to prepare the bodies.

Troops from Fort Clark, under command of Maj. K. B. Edmunds, are in charge of the town. Military rule has been established and only doctors, nurses and stretcher-bearers are permitted to enter the stricken city.

OFFICER BERT YOAKAM SUFFERS HEART ATTACK

Officer Bert Yoakam of the city police force was stricken with a heart attack while patrolling his beat on N.
Main-st. about 9:30 this morning and fell unconscious on the sidewalk. In front of the Dugan clothing store. His head was cut and bruised when it struck the sidewalk.

The officer was carried into the Dugan store, where a physician was summoned to dress his injuries. He was then taken to his home on N.
Main-st. His complete recovery is expected within a few days. Officer Yoakam had been complaining of a slight illness for several days and the attack is believed to have been the result of this condition.

CHILD INJURED

Alva Bowerman, colored, seven-year-old daughter of Mrs. Frances Lucas, 249 Senate-st, sustained a dislocated hip and bruises about her limbs last night when she was struck by an automobile near her home. She was removed to City Hospital.

GALION KIWANIS CLUB HEARS LOCAL TALENT

Charles T. Monroe, Official Song Leader, Has Charge of Program

Galion April 14—Galion talent entertained at the Kiwanis Club luncheon Tuesday noon at the Big Store. Not only were the participants residents of Galion but also all fellow Kiwanians. Charles T. Monroe, the club's official song leader, had charge of the meeting and kept the crowd in constant good humor with his witticisms.

Galion's favorite humorist, Hugh Diamond, was the speaker of the occasion and talked of the city's progress in recent years. In an interesting manner Diamond contrasted the Galion of forty years ago with the modern little city as it is today, favoring the episode with accounts of amusing experiences and his usual supply of funny stories.

A surprise number had been promised and was the last specially announced. Carl J. Gugler, prominent attorney and president of the Harding Highway Association, supplied the unexpected musical treat when he contributed some very well played harmonium selections. For his group of numbers Mr. Gugler used instruments of three different sizes and pitches and was repeatedly cheered. Although known as one of the organization's most gifted orators, Gugler's musical talent had never before been demonstrated and the surprise scheduled met with the hearty approval of all Kiwanians.

LITTLE MARMON FEATURED BY RIDING QUALITY

Car Has Especially Designed Rubber-Set Hydraulic Spring Suspension

Especially designed rubber set hydraulic spring suspension, combined with accurate distribution of weight over the entire chassis and an unusually low center of gravity make possible riding qualities in the new Little Marmon light that rival the large Marmon, always recognized as one of the easiest riding cars ever manufactured.

The wheelbase of 116 inches makes the car extremely utilitarian—easy to park and easy to drive through crowded city streets, as well as country roads. Springs on the Little Marmon have a total length of 34 inches or only 22 inches less than the wheelbase of the car. Rubber knuckles are used in place of shackles in the springs to guard fully against sharp road shocks and so-called spring periods. This use of rubber is another comfort factor that definitely stamps the new small car as a truly fine small car.

The unusually long springs are augmented by Lowrey hydraulic shock absorbers, engineered directly into the chassis at the time the steel frame is made. The use of shock absorbers of this type usually is confined to more costly automobiles and their incorporation into the construction of the Little Marmon is a definite example of the quality of this new small car.

Use of the hypoid spiral bevel gear in the rear axle makes possible a lower center of gravity and is a distinct advantage in attaining maximum roadability since it allows for lower construction of the entire chassis, yet with normal headroom and road clearance. Weight, both in the various body types and in the mechanical parts, has been carefully distributed throughout the entire car. Even the balloon tires are balanced to gain an ease of driving that heretofore has not been attained in a car the size of the Little Marmon.

In looking into the riding qualities of the new car, Marmon engineers paid particular attention to the springs in the cushioning of the seats and even to the upholstery and leather. Back spring is in a burly sack and has unusual flexibility. In addition, special curled hair, made to Marmon specifications, is used in the upholstery of the closed types.

Sponge rubber arm rests, covered with upholstery, and silk toggle grips were adopted in the sedan models to assure rear seat passengers an extra $55.00, delivered prices.—Adv.

NASH

Leads the World in Motor Car Value

How many main bearings in your motor car? Nash recommends 7

Because for the finest and smoothest performance results, you need 7, rather than 3 or 4.

Obviously, 3 or 4 supports for a crankshaft cannot give it the rigidity and smoothness of 7. That is why Nash—with customary engineering progressiveness—has developed the 7-bearing motor for all Nash models.

The 7 bearings of Nash achieve power-smoothness and quietness, and achieve it, moreover, with no sacrifice of acceleration. In fact, the proper support of the crankshaft decidedly improves the energy and aggressiveness of the car.

Here is another fact to remember about the 7 bearings of Nash: They have more bearing surface, by actual measurement, than any 6-cylinder engine of similar size and price, no matter how many bearings it has. (Actually 20 square inches more than cars with fewer bearings.)

When you buy your 1927 motor car be sure to ask: "How many main bearings?" And for better results choose the car that has 7. Nash offers you this performance-advantage in every single model, whether you pay $2090 for it or only $865.

Style Leader of American Motor Cars

Ever since its enthusiastic reception at the Automobile Shows, the new Nash Ambassador has continued to sweep higher and higher in public favor.

Men and women everywhere are outspoken in their praise of the alluring lines, the smart new contour, and the surpassing color harmonies of this Advanced Six model.

Unquestionably, the motif of this Ambassador model, and its companion car on the Special Six chassis, the Cavalier, will inspire an entirely new trend in enclosed car design.

Like every other model in the entire Nash line, this Nash Ambassador likewise embraces all those matchless performance superiorities inherent with the 7-bearing crankshaft type of motor—the world's smoothest type.

AMERICA'S FIRST TRULY FINE SMALL CAR

Compacted Quality

Perhaps you are one of the very sizable number of thinking people who have said, "Why doesn't somebody build a small car, with all the quality and charm and fine workmanship that have been available only in the largest, most expensive cars?"

At last, that's just what has been done by Marmon in this new Little Marmon 8. Compacted quality—that's really the central theme.

Only Marmon went somewhat further—this little car is endowed with big car comfort and big car performance, such as Marmon alone could give it. And when you see it and drive it you'll know Marmon has done the job right.

What It Will Do
Speed—70 real miles per hour, if you care to go that fast.

Acceleration—the fastest ever known—due to new discoveries in line-eight carburetion.

Handling—lightning-quick in all phases of control.

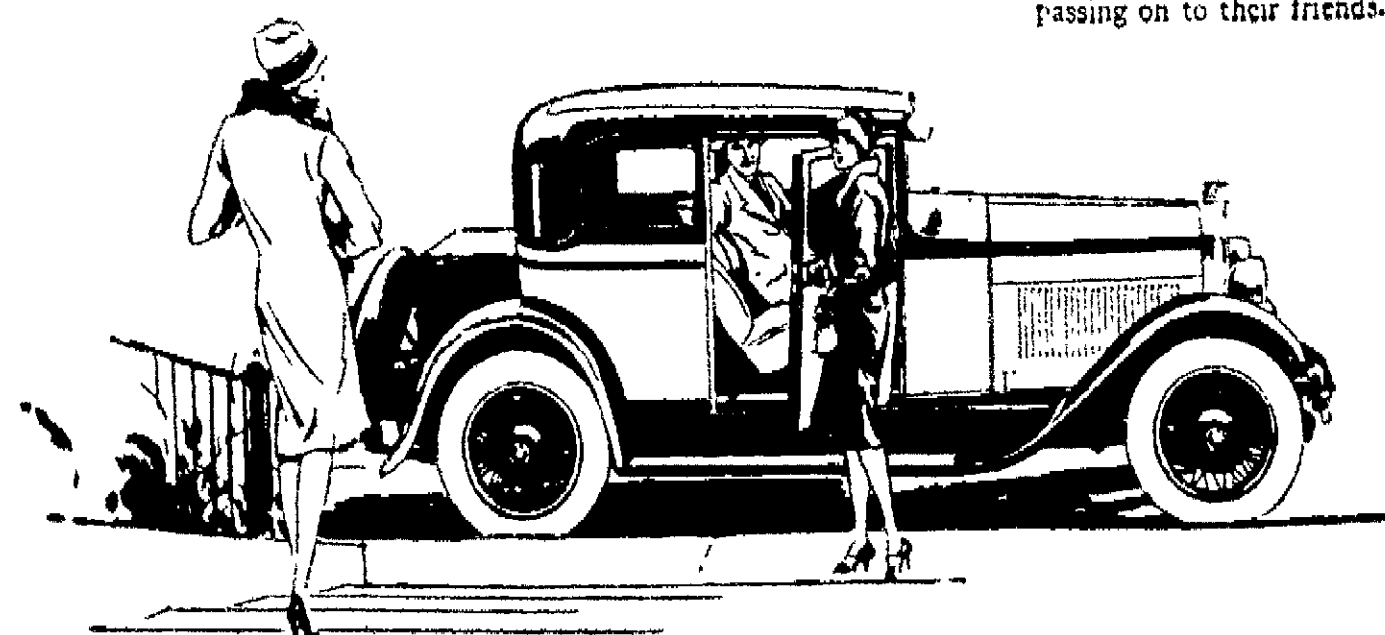

Comfort—that takes you into the realm of five, six or seven thousand dollar cars.

Durability—a car built to Marmon precision standards and backed by years of research and development.

Prices—$1795 and upward f.o.b. factory.

CONFIDENCE
It takes real things these days to make one person say to another, "This automobile is everything they claim for it—and more"—a remark of confidence which hundreds of little Marmon 8 owners are passing on to their friends.

FATHER BREAKS DOWN WHEN HE TAKES STAND

County Officials Testify Today
in Trial of Floyd
Hewitt

Jefferson, April 11—County officials will take the stand today in the trial of Floyd Hewitt, charged with the murder of Fred Brown, Jr., 3, at Centrist last February. Among those who will be called to testify are the coroner, sheriff and two police officers.
A pathetic scene was enacted late yesterday when Fred Brown, Sr., father of the murdered boy, told of returning from his work on the night of Feb. 14, to find his wife, Celia Brown, and his little son, brutally beaten to death with a poker and baseball bat.
Tears welled from the eyes of many in the courtroom during the bereaved man's recital, and he himself was overcome with emotion and sorrow.

With tears streaming down his cheeks, Brown told of finding his wife dead. Continuing his story he tried to tell of the finding of his son in the basement of the Brown home, but broke down completely, sobbing: "Oh, God, my poor little boy didn't have a chance."

The defendant, Hewitt, however, sat apparently unmoved during Brown's testimony, and showed little emotion when the iron stove poker and baseball bat were introduced as exhibits by the state. He seemed more interested in the time of day, glancing at a watch worn on his wrist, at frequent intervals.

Hewitt also is under indictment charged with the killing of Mrs.
Brown, but is being tried first on the charge of slaying the boy.
Prosecutor C. J. Cook, declaring that attorneys may play but a small part in the trial, says he intends to base the state's case upon Hewitt's confession, made shortly after the double crime was committed and later repudiated, and also upon a button which was found near the scene of the murder which is alleged to have been ripped from a coat worn by the accused ruth.

The defense expects to prove that Hewitt is "mentally incapable," saying that the confession could have been obtained from "any 10-year-old boy."
Attorneys are expected to appear for the defense in an attempt to prove that Hewitt, although 16 years old and of husky build, has the mind of a 10-year-old child.

circumstances appear to be sufficiently serious.
An exception was made of a complaint received last Sunday, however.
It came over the telephone from a man residing in the northwest section of the city.

"I wish you would send an officer up here," the perturbed citizen stated excitedly. "A gang of boys is out on the street playing ball and I don't approve ball games on the Sabbath."

"All right, who is this speaking?" the officer at the police station desk inquired.

The answer brought a name that was well known not only to this officer but to every other policeman on the force. It was the name of a man who had been under police supervision on several occasions for various alleged offenses, all of which were more serious than playing ball on the Sabbath.

At least that was the judgment of the officer receiving the call and the result was that the boys were not allowed in their game by the arrival of any bluecoats.

Nicaragua Revolt Renews Action on Plans for Canal

Estimates and Figures Dug Out of Dust After Four Years

BY CHARLES F. STEWART

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Nicaragua probably would have waited a long time for an inter-oceanic canal if Dr. Juan B. Sacasa hadn't rebelled against President Adolfo Diaz. As it is, the project is a pretty early start on the job.

The Washington administration was led or misled—in the Sacasa-Diaz fight. Having done so, it finds it rather difficult to explain why.

Henry Stimson, nobody seems very well satisfied with Secretary of State Kellogg's reasons.

Embarrassing questions are sure to be asked when congress meets. It will hardly do to say that intervention was at the instance of some small-caliber banking interests.

But if it appears that the United States

Henry Stimson

states was forced to act, to protect the rights in a contemplated billion-dollar canal—why, that'll be an excuse which can't but be accepted as valid, on account of the huge sum involved, regard less of any other reason.

A billion-dollar stake justifies anything.

To give verisimilitude to this explanation, it's necessary to have the Washington and Managua governments pushing the Nicaragua canal negotiations at a great rate.

Well, it so happens that here were some Nicaraguan canal plans and estimates on file in the office of the chief of army engineers.

The state department sent for 'em in but haste. They were hard to find, for they were in a nearly forgotten pigeon hole, and most of them very old, the most recent document bearing date more than four years ago.

The army engineers would have fired up a nice new set, but this was such a hurry-up order that here wasn't time for that.

No the old papers were dusted off and turned over to ex-Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson, and Stimson's on his way to Nicaragua now, as President Coolidge's "personal representative," to open up canal negotiations with President Diaz, as soon as possible.

THE curious thing is this: Whereas you couldn't find a government engineer in Washington six months ago who'd discuss a Nicaragua canal with you as anything but a remote possibility of the dim and uncertain future, today you can't find one who doesn't insist it's an urgent necessity.

Nobody argues that the Panama canals need up to anything like its capacity.

It's only open to shipping by daylight. It could do twice the business as a 24-hour waterway, but it wouldn't pay. It hasn't customers enough. If it ever does get on a 24-hour basis and can't handle the traffic, enlarging its locks will again double its capacity. It will cost money to enlarge its locks, but not a quarter as much as a new canal will cost.

A sound argument maybe, only why didn't it occur to them until so recently?

It Really Happened

EVERYONE loves a good story. But how tame and unreal a fiction story is compared with a story that really happened!

The most fascinating characters are those that actually live—people such as we see around us every day. The most dramatic events are those that unfold on the stage of life—events often so thrilling, so strange that we are amazed when we realize that they are true.

Every month True Story Magazine prints 16 or more powerful, gripping, heart-touching narratives lifted right out of life itself. Its stories of love and marriage, of success and failure, of temptation and struggle, of laughter and tears have made this great magazine the favorite with over eight million readers. You, too, will enjoy it. True Story for May is now on the newsstands—price only a quarter. Get your copy today.

Tagging All Bases

CLEVELAND'S avil chorus got to work on Manager Jack McCallister today as the result of the Tribe's 7 to 2 defeat by the White Sox yesterday. Cleveland was leading 2 to 1 in the ninth when the Sox filled the bases, whereupon McCallister yanked Kniff Levens, who had allowed but one hit until the eighth inning. When the Sox got through with Miller, Levens's successor, they had seven runs and the ball game.

With Jess Haines of the Cardinals yielding only two hits, the Cubs curled up and died on the small end of a 5 to 0 score. They now led the attack on Blake with three hits.

THE YANKEES BOOTED WITH MACKENIN AGAIN, 10 TO 4. SIMMONS GOT FOUR HITS FOR THE LOSERS, WHILE KOENIG COLLECTED FIVE SAFETIES AND FIELDED BRILLIANTLY FOR THE WINNERS.

THE Robins outlasted the Braves, but lost 4 to 2 because of stupid base running. Brooklyn also broke out into a rash of errors at inopportune moments.

Rain held the other teams idle.

FINNEGAN SIGNS

Will Meet Red Chapman in Bout At Brooklyn On June 8

New York, April 14—Honeyboy Finnegan and Red Chapman, Boston featherweights, regarded as the leading contenders for the title have been matched for a bout in Brooklyn on June 8. Promoter Pugaz will present a gem-studded belt to the winner.

Meanwhile Johnny Dundee, undefeated featherweight champion who relinquished the title two years ago because of increasing weight, is planning a comeback.

Cleveland Indians Blow in Ninth and Lose to Chisox; Rain Stops Cincinnati Tilt

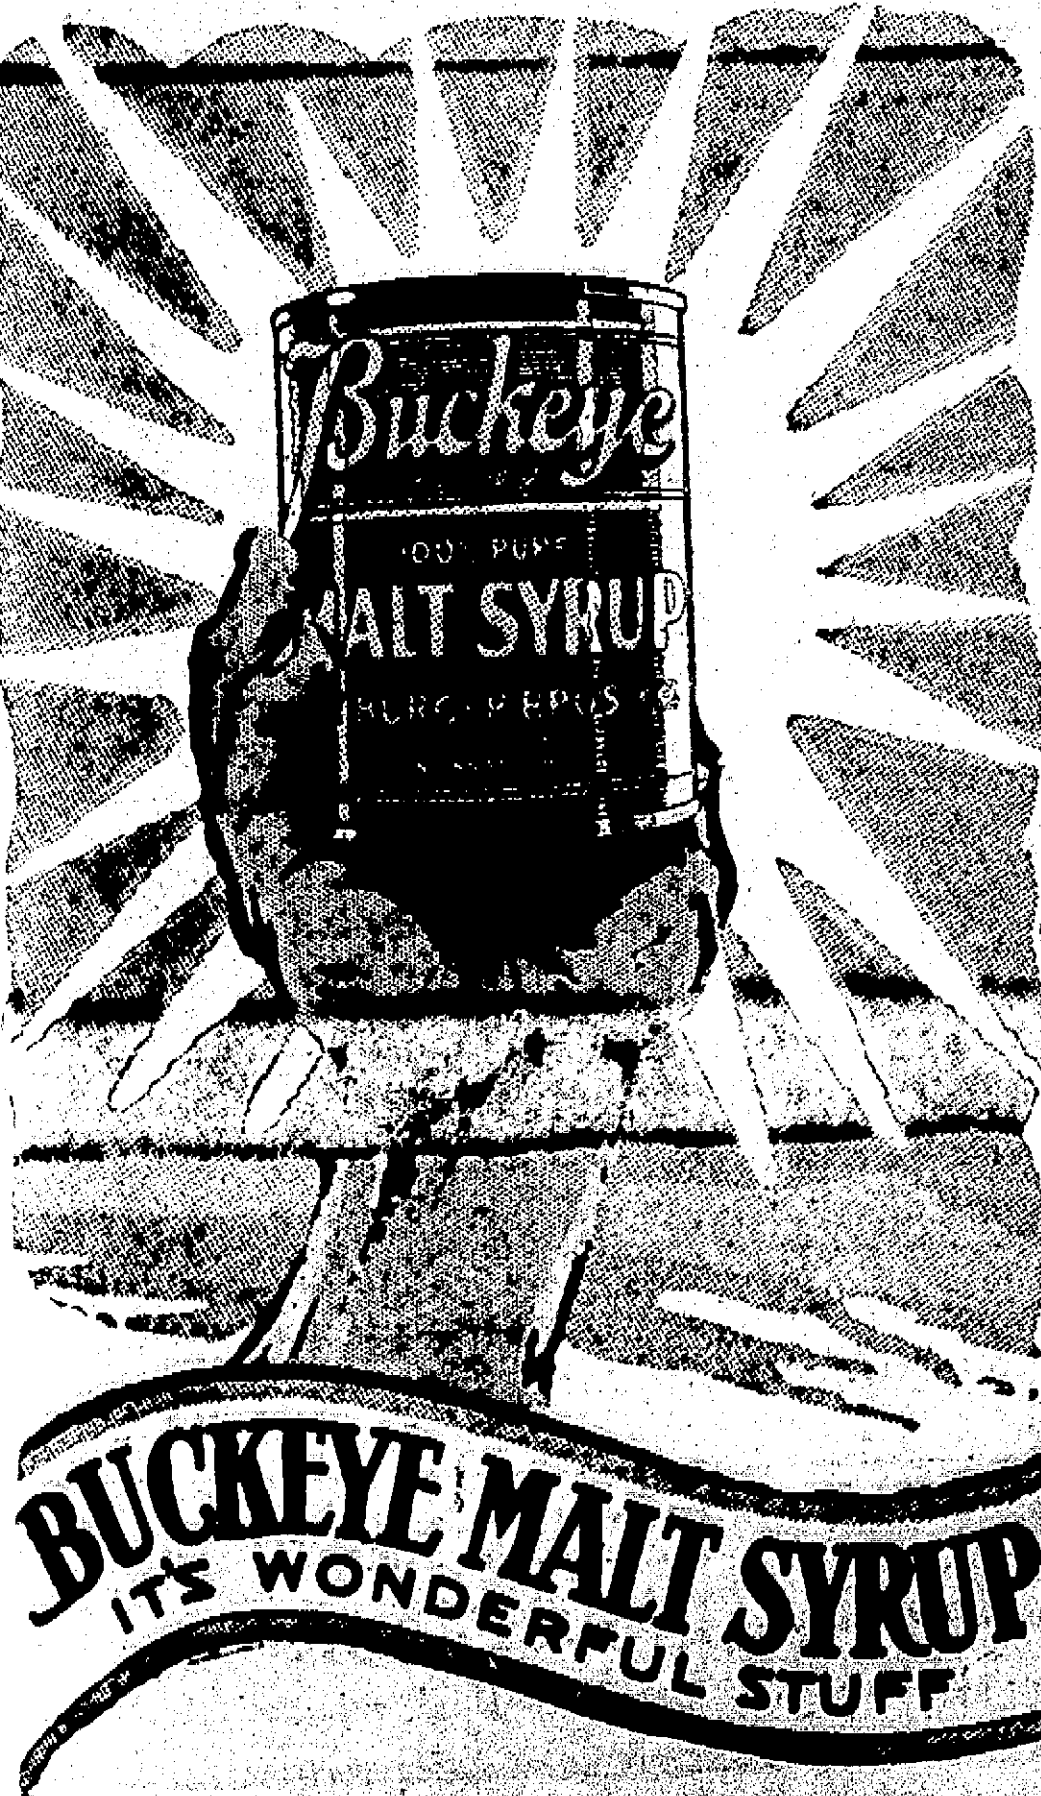

Hunnefeld Stars Winning Rally Through Spurgeon's Error; McCallister Uses Three Pitchers; George Burns Gets Home Run in Eighth Inning

With the game won until the ninth inning the Cleveland Indians yesterday blew sky high and allowed the Chicago White Sox to score six runs in the final frame. The Chisox won, 7 to 2. The Cincinnati-Pittsburgh game was washed away by April showers and all games in the American Association were postponed because of rain.

Battling for Peck in the ninth, Hunnefeld of the White Sox started the fatal rally by reaching first on Spurgeon's error. McCallister bunted safely and Clancy took a free trip to first. Miller relieved Levens in the box and the result is seen in the final tally. Boone, batting for Moore, singled. Baum knocked out a two-legged. When the damage was done, Manager Jack McCallister sent in Hudlin, who retired the next three Sox batters. Levens had allowed only one hit until the eighth inning when Chicago made its first run.

George Burns had tied up the game for Cleveland with a home run in the eighth.

Fate of Anti-Sunday Dance Bill Hangs in Balance as Senate Body Fails to Meet

Senator George H. Bender, Chairman of Committee, Walks Out "Disgusted" When Members Remain Away from Session; Author Lays Plans

Fate of the Hill anti-Sunday dance bill hangs in the balance today as a result of the senate county affairs committee having failed to meet in Columbus last night as scheduled to take action on the measure.

Senator George H. Bender, chairman of the committee, was on hand promptly at 7:30 o'clock, the time set for opening the session, but after remaining an hour, during which only four of the nine committee members showed up, he gave up hope of holding a meeting and walked out, declaring that he was "disgusted."

Whether this means that an effort will be made by the committee to permit the bill to pass into oblivion from lack of attention is expected to be ascertained before the legislature adjourns.

which he said had been written by Warner, urging Republican legislators to support the bill because it would furnish additional jobs for representatives of their party and because the senate had passed it as a party measure.

Secretary of State Brown was assailed more vigorously than Warner, chiefly because of the fact that he is holding the office which would have charge of the drivers' license bureau.

"It is a disgrace to the state when officers of the state lobby for laws that will create new jobs for their departments," John M. Hodson, Democrat, Williams County, declared.

Representative Ray C. Carpenter, Seneca County, also centered an attack on Brown, challenging the propriety of that official lobbying in behalf of the measure. Carpenter also declared that officials of automobile clubs, who he asserted, do not represent the membership of their organizations, were largely responsible for the attempt to revive the bill.

Carpenter claimed, however, that propaganda in behalf of the measure was inspired in the office of the Secretary of State.

"I am a republican but I shall not sacrifice the party for a few more jobs," he declared.

Studebaker Big Six

now outsells the combined total of all the other cars in the world of equal or greater rated horsepower

THE COMMANDER—with Big Six performance heightened—with One-Price prices lowered—is smashing records right and left.

It is smashing records of speed, records of hill climbing, records of sales.

No sedan with horsepower equal to that of the Big Six, according to the ratings of the Society of Automotive Engineers and of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, sells for less than $4000. To get Big Six power you must pay more than double Big Six prices.

As a result of this big value in power, the Big Six has outsold all these other high-powered cars—eights as well as sixes. Today, as a result of the astounding performance of the new Commander models, sales of the Big Six are far in excess of the combined totals of all other cars (those manufactured in the United States and also those built abroad), which equal it in rated horsepower.

Command a Commander

No words, but only your own hand on the steering wheel, your own foot on the throttle, can tell you why men are trading in cars that cost twice as much; to secure the superior power and performance of The Commander.

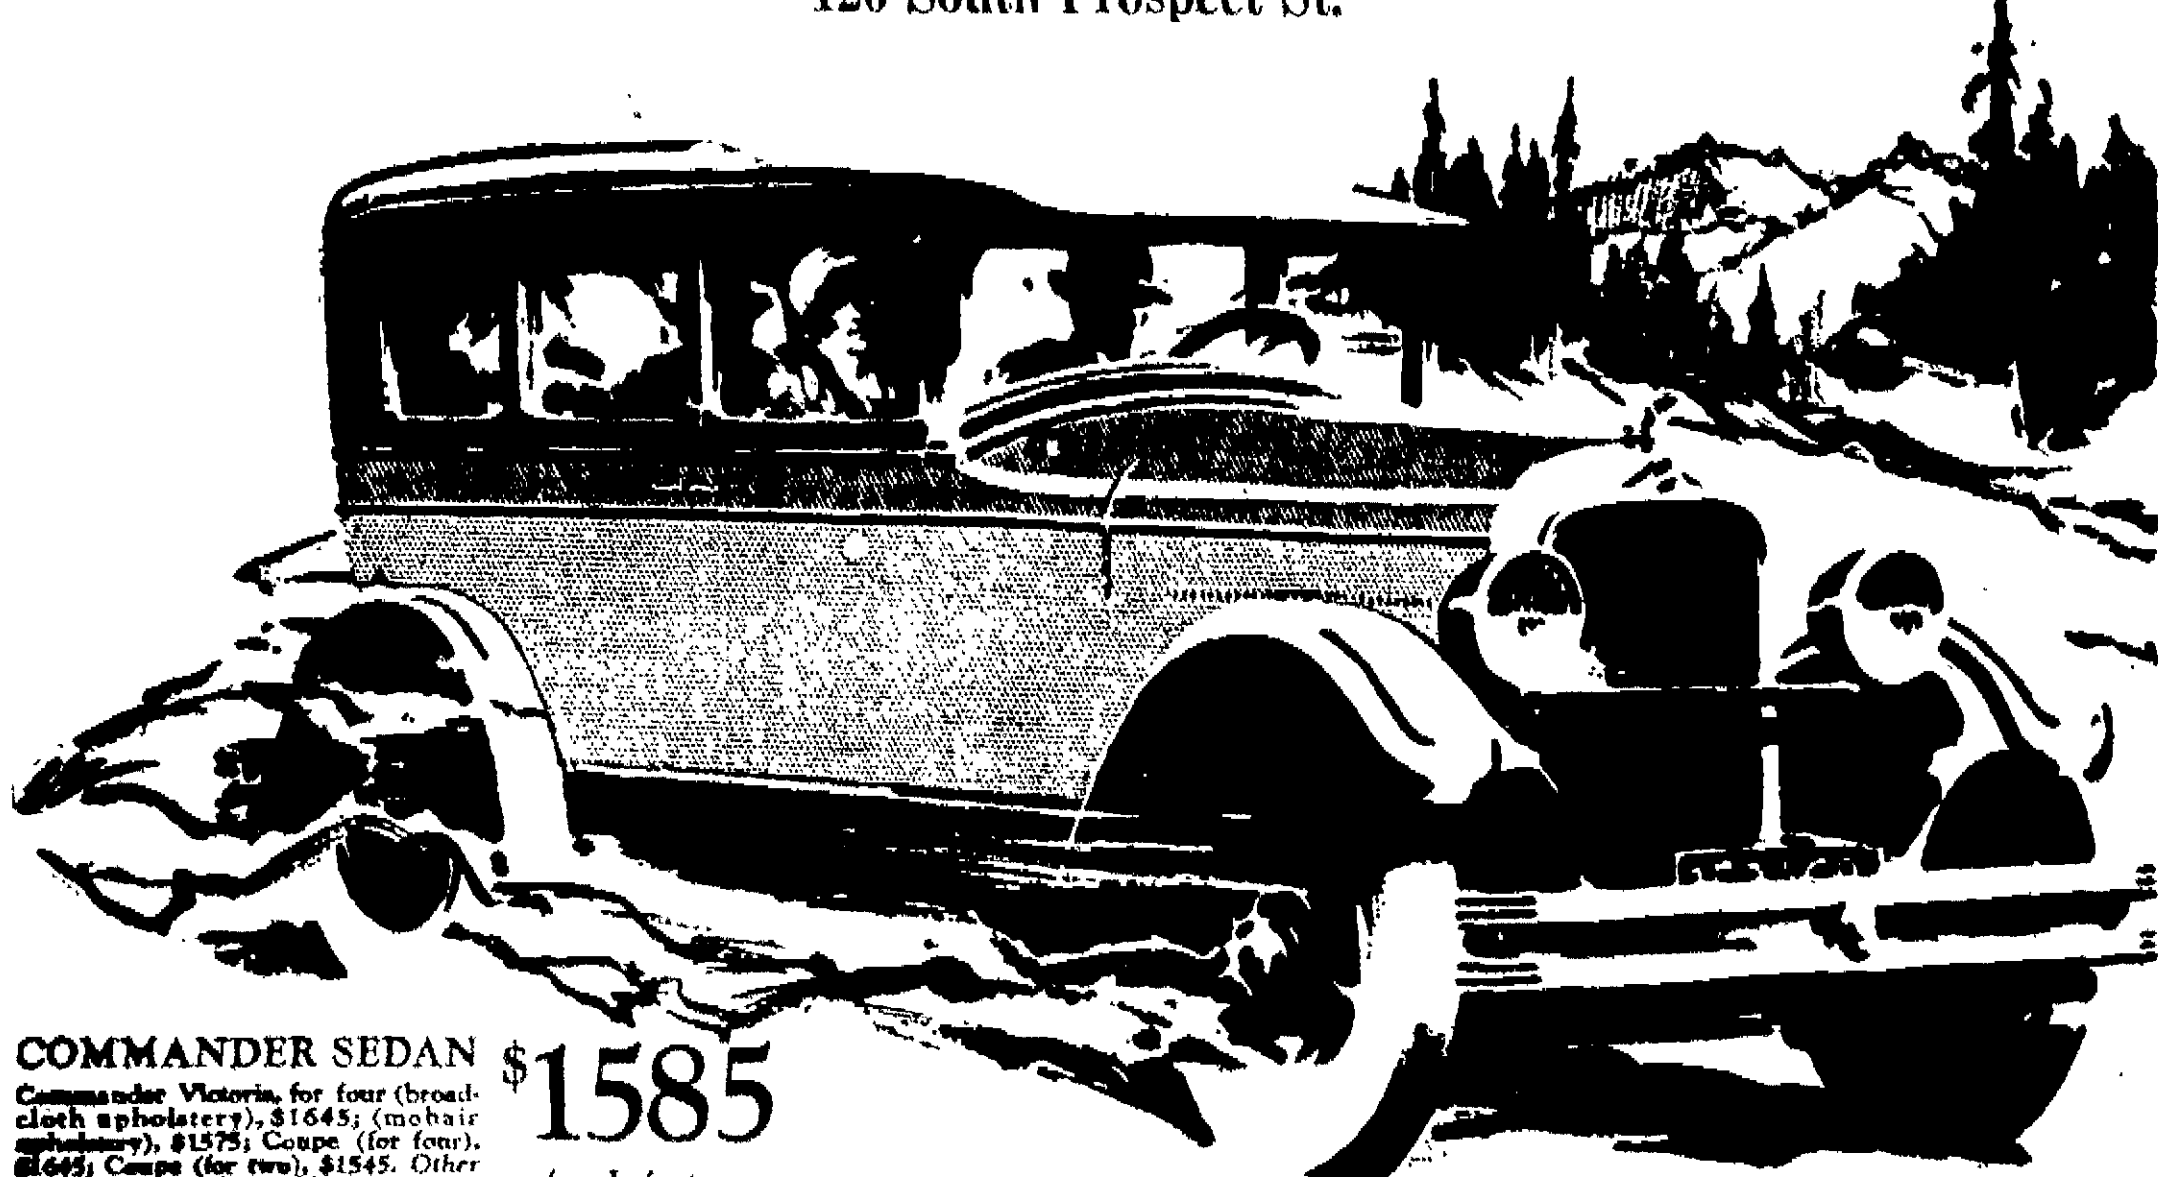

"Phone us and we will give you an opportunity to drive The Commander yourself—to appreciate why it has been called "the greatest post-war engineering feat"—why Studebaker salesmen have nicknamed it "the Ball of Fire."

The Erskine Six is now on display. This Little Aristocrat offers a new standard of comfort, performance and economy at its price. See it in our showroom.

Spring Brings Complaints Against Dogs and Chickens

MAYOR HAZEN and the police department are starting upon their annual task of receiving and taking action on complaints from citizens who report that their yards and gardens are being devastated by neighbors' chickens and dogs.

This problem invariably presents itself every spring and grows in magnitude as the gardening season advances.

Yesterday several telephone calls came from different parts of the city where chickens and canines were reported to be running at large.

Some of these people claim that when they buy licenses and tags that their dogs can run anywhere, one woman reported, at the same time complaining that a neighbor's canine had seriously damaged her flower beds.

City Clerk H. K. Stofer who received this complaint assured the woman that dogs, licenses or no licenses, must not be permitted to damage property and that she should report her trouble to the police department.

FINDLAY MAN BUYS TRUMBULL BUILDING HERE

John H. Williamson Becomes New Owner; Consideration Placed at $55,000

John H. Williamson, of Findlay, is owner of the Trumbull Apartments today, following confirmation of the sale of the property by Judge George H. Scofield in Common Pleas Court in the foreclosure action brought by the Harbiman National Bank of New York against John H. Dugger.

The transfer was made for a consideration of $55,000. A month ago Judge Scofield set aside an offer of $10,000 for the property and ordered it sold again.

Out of the purchase price the Harbiman National Bank gets $37,008.22 to satisfy a mortgage. The Peoples Bank Co. gets $13,975.68 on another mortgage and $3,756.07 goes for taxes.

A. M. Methany, receiver, is discharged under the court order approving the sale of the property.
